Dear JJMSF Friends:

We are proud to announce that our 2011 recipients are Jayquan Arzu and Michael Williams. They are attending Marist College and Penn State University, respectively. When Jay and Michael graduate in 2015, our organization will have honored the memory of Juanita James for 30 years by awarding 36 students close to a quarter of a million dollars in grants along with priceless mentoring and career guidance.

The JJMSF founders now welcome the enthusiasm and dedication of our new board members: Kanika Brooks, Olisa Christian, and Miguel Rosario. They have exciting ideas about re-organizing and re-directing their efforts toward service projects with pre-college students in Bronx housing developments. We are not hosting a reception this year, but we would very much like to keep you informed of our activities and our scholars' accomplishments. Please visit our website regularly, and keep in contact with us.

We sincerely appreciate your ongoing interest, support, generosity, and encouragement. Have a happy and healthy holiday.
